University of Central Florida Sexual Misconduct Response Overview

Incident occurs

University becomes aware of the incident

- Documented with Student Rights and Responsibilities (Deputy Title IX Coordinator) if alleged perpetrator is a student
- Documented with Office of Student Conduct if alleged perpetrator is a student
- Documented with Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action (Title IX Coordinator) if alleged perpetrator is a University employee

At any time:
- Discuss options with UCF Police Department or local law enforcement
- Contact UCF PD for additional information and support: 407-823-5555
- Seek confidential crisis support: Victim Services, Health Services, Counseling and Psychological Services

Report reviewed and investigation initiates. Deputy Title IX Coordinator reaches out to alleged victim for meeting to go over resources. Discuss options: No contact order, conduct process, housing accommodations, and academic accommodations.

Report reviewed. Deputy Title IX Coordinator reaches out to alleged victim for meeting to go over resources. Discuss options: No contact order, conduct process, housing accommodations, and academic accommodations.

Report reviewed and investigation initiates. Title IX Coordinator reaches out to alleged victim for meeting to go over resources. Discuss options: No contact order, conduct process, housing accommodations, and academic accommodations.

Additional university processes may occur based on recommendations from the Title IX Coordinator and/or documentation from the alleged victim.

Deputy Title IX Coordinator interviews alleged perpetrator and witnesses:
- Based on alleged victim and alleged perpetrator statements and any supplemental reports, Deputy Title IX Coordinator completes summary report with recommendations for action.

Student conduct process may be initiated based on recommendations from Deputy Title IX Coordinator and/or documentation from alleged victim.

For a comprehensive guide and complete list of resources, visit: osrr.sdes.ucf.edu

Alleged victim is informed of campus and community support resources

Alleged victim chooses not to initiate conduct process and/or interim measures or Deputy Title IX Coordinator recommends no further conduct action

Alleged Victim Completes Notification of Services Form to confirm no further action at this time

Alleged victim is informed of campus and community support resources

Alleged victim chooses to initiate conduct process and/or interim measures or conduct process is initiated by Deputy Title IX Coordinator

Alleged Victim completes Notification of Services Form to confirm decision regarding their rights.

For complete overview of the Student Conduct process and a student’s rights within that process, visit: osc.sdes.ucf.edu. Additional university processes may occur based on recommendations from the Deputy Title IX Coordinator and/or documentation from the alleged victim.